I have examined the above Balance Sheet of the Province of Ontario as at March 31, 1959, the Statements of Revenue and Expenditure for the year ended on that date and other related statements, and have compared them with the books of account and financial records. I have obtained all the information and explanations I have required.

Subject to the qualifications in my report of even date to the Legislative Assembly, in my opinion and according to the best of my information and the explanations given to me and as shown by the books of the Province, the Balance Sheet, Statements of Revenue and Expenditure and the other related statements are properly drawn up in conformity with accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year so as to present fairly the financial position of the Province at March 31, 1959, and the results of its operations for the year then ended.

Provincial Auditor's Office,
Toronto, November 24, 1959.

H. A. COTNAM, F.C.A.,
Provincial Auditor.

I have examined the above Balance Sheet of the Province of Ontario as at March 31, 1960, the Statements of Revenue and Expenditure for the year ended on that date and other related statements, and have compared them with the books of account and financial records. I have obtained all the information and explanations I have required.

Subject to the qualifications in my report of even date to the Legislative Assembly, in my opinion and according to the best of my information and the explanations given to me and as shown by the books of the Province, the Balance Sheet, Statements of Revenue and Expenditure and the other related statements are properly drawn up in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year so as to present fairly the financial position of the Province at March 31, 1960, and the results of its operations for the year then ended.

Provincial Auditor's Office,
Toronto, November 22, 1960.

H. A. COTNAM, F.C.A.,
Provincial Auditor.

AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

I have examined the balance sheet of Housing Corporation Limited as at March 31, 1960 and the statements of revenue and expenditure and deficit for the year ended on that date. My examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion the accompanying balance sheet and statements of revenue and expenditure and deficit present fairly the financial position of the Corporation as at March 31, 1960, and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

I have examined the balance sheet of The Ontario Municipal Improvement Corporation as at March 31, 1960, and the statements of revenue and expenditure and surplus for the year ended on that date. My examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion the accompanying balance sheet and statements of revenue and expenditure and surplus present fairly the financial position of the Corporation as at March 31, 1960, and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

H. A. COTNAM, F.C.A.,
Provincial Auditor.

Toronto, June 9, 1960.

The first part of the book is devoted to a general survey of the history of the English language from its earliest known form to the present day. It is divided into three main periods: the Old English period, the Middle English period, and the Modern English period. Each period is further subdivided into smaller units, such as centuries or decades, and each unit is accompanied by a list of representative texts and a brief description of the language as it was used at that time.
The second part of the book is devoted to a detailed study of the grammar of the English language. It is divided into two main sections: the first section deals with the syntax of the language, and the second section deals with the morphology of the language. Each section is further subdivided into smaller units, such as chapters or sections, and each unit is accompanied by a list of representative examples and a brief description of the grammatical rule or principle that governs their use.
The third part of the book is devoted to a study of the vocabulary of the English language. It is divided into two main sections: the first section deals with the etymology of words, and the second section deals with the semantics of words. Each section is further subdivided into smaller units, such as chapters or sections, and each unit is accompanied by a list of representative words and a brief description of their historical development and current meaning.
The fourth part of the book is devoted to a study of the pronunciation of the English language. It is divided into two main sections: the first section deals with the phonetics of the language, and the second section deals with the phonology of the language. Each section is further subdivided into smaller units, such as chapters or sections, and each unit is accompanied by a list of representative sounds and a brief description of the phonetic or phonological rule that governs their use.
The fifth part of the book is devoted to a study of the writing system of the English language. It is divided into two main sections: the first section deals with the orthography of the language, and the second section deals with the punctuation of the language. Each section is further subdivided into smaller units, such as chapters or sections, and each unit is accompanied by a list of representative examples and a brief description of the orthographic or punctuation rule that governs their use.
